

EMILY FRANK

7276 W. Robin Lane; Glendale, AZ 85310; (602) 501-3027; emfrank2@asu.edu

OBJECTIVE

A critical care position with an accredited hospital that will allow me to utilize my knowledge and education to further individual patient's health care and the nursing environment

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Nursing, Concentration Family and Human Development August 2012
Arizona State University, Phoenix, Arizona

Bachelor of Health Science, Pre-Professional August 2014
Arizona State University, Phoenix, Arizona

HONORS

Barrett Honors College: Honors Thesis- Self-reported Perceptions of Stress in Undergraduate Baccalaureate Nursing Programs
Arizona State University, Phoenix, Arizona August 2012

AWARDS

ASU Provost Scholarship: $30,000 merit-based scholarship awarded to freshmen students for exemplary academic performance

ASU Registrar's Scholarship: $4,000 yearly scholarship awarded from the University Registrar's office for outstanding extra-curricular and volunteer experience

ACADEMIC AFFILIATIONS

May 2011- August 2012

College Council of Nursing Students (Secretary): Executive council position requiring organization, neatness, and promptness

Student Nurses' Association (Class Representative): Representative position that required the ability to attend regular meetings, advocate for the nursing students, and relay important information from the association back to the students

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

May 2011- August 2012

Evidence-Based Practice Alert: Evaluate current research and alert existing practitioners to current evidence-based practices

Evidence-Based Practice Capstone Project: Appraise evidence-based research articles and determine best interventions to implement in current practice

Health Disparity Community Assessment: Assess, identify, and evaluate specific population and the health disparities within said population

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

St. Joseph's Hospital Child Life Volunteer

August 2009- December 2009

Learned basic patient-caregiver interactions through caring for infants with no family present in the hospital setting

WORK EXPERIENCE

Alhambra Credit Union (Member-Service Representative): Customer service position that required organization, timeliness, professional conversation skills, and the ability to work under pressure
Phoenix, Arizona.

May 2010- December 2011

Bananas Ranas Restaurant (Waitress): Customer service position that required the skills to listen to customers needs, respond quickly, and speak effectively and professionally to customers
Glendale, Arizona.

August 2009- December 2009